(This Note is not part of the Order.)

Article 3 of the Immigration (Particulars of Passengers and Crew) Order 1972 requires (inter alia) the master of a ship arriving in the United Kingdom from or after calling at a place outside the common travel area to furnish to an immigration officer within 12 hours a return containing particulars of all crew members, the form of return being prescribed in the Schedule to the Order. This Order, as from 1st September 1975, substitutes a new form recommended for this purpose by the United Nations Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organisation, while allowing the old form to be used as an alternative for one year after that date.
