Report of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women on its sixty-first session

6-24 July 2015
Chapter I

Decisions adopted by the Committee

Decision 61/I

On 24 July 2015, the Committee adopted general recommendation No. 33 (2015) on women’s access to justice, by consensus (CEDAW/C/GC/33).

Decision 61/II

The Committee took note of the Guidelines against Intimidation or Reprisals endorsed by the Chairs of the human rights treaty bodies at their twenty-seventh meeting, held in San José from 22 to 26 June 2015, (see HRI/MC/2015/6) and decided:

(a) That the Bureau of the Committee would continue to act as focal point on intimidation or reprisals, including intersessionally;

(b) That the Bureau would determine, by consensus and in consultation with the Committee in plenary meeting, the appropriate course of action to be taken in response to substantiated allegations of intimidation or reprisals against individuals or groups for seeking to cooperate or cooperating with the Committee. Intersessionally, the Bureau would keep the Committee members duly informed;

(c) That the Committee would further consider the guidelines with a view to adapting and developing them to best reflect its particular context, mandate and experience.

Decision 61/III

The Committee took note of the elements for the elaboration of and consultations on general comments/general recommendations endorsed by the Chairs of the human rights treaty bodies at their twenty-seventh meeting (see A/70/302, paras. 91 (a)-(h)) and decided:

(a) That the elements contained in subparagraphs (a), (b), (d) and (h) were in line with the Committee’s existing practice;

(b) To adopt the element contained in subparagraph (c);

(c) To further look into the implications of the elements contained in subparagraphs (e) and (g);

(d) To adopt the elements contained in subparagraph (f), on the understanding that the advance version of a draft general recommendation would be posted on the website of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) at a stage to be decided by the relevant working group of the Committee.

Decision 61/IV

The Committee decided that the growing number of individual communications registered for examination under article 2 of the Optional Protocol to the Convention and the backlog of cases ready for adoption were a cause of concern, given the lack of capacity on the part of the Petitions and Inquiries Section of the Human Rights Treaties Division to prepare more than three or four drafts per session. Bearing in mind its own time constraints, the Committee decided to invite OHCHR to urgently explore ways and means to effectively address that situation in order to avoid delays in the adoption of decisions in cases ready for adoption and the creation of an extensive backlog of pending cases.

Decision 61/V

The Committee decided to request its secretariat to send reminders to all States parties whose reports were more than five years overdue.

Decision 61/VI

In accordance with its decision 51/I, the Committee decided to send a final reminder to Antigua and Barbuda to submit its combined fourth to seventh periodic reports by 31 January 2016 and, should the reports not be received, to schedule the consideration of Antigua and Barbuda in the absence of a report at its sixty-fifth session, in October/November 2016.

Decision 61/VII

The Committee decided to mandate its working group on the Convention and the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women) to explore ways and means for further developing and monitoring indicators for target 5.1 of the Sustainable Development Goals, in collaboration with UN-Women. It also decided that the working group would be renamed “working group on the Convention, UN-Women and the Sustainable Development Goals” and have open membership.

Decision 61/VIII

The Committee decided to merge its focal point on gender and HIV/AIDS and its focal point on sexual and reproductive rights into one focal point on gender, HIV/AIDS and sexual and reproductive health and rights, and to confirm Louiza Chalal, Theodora Oby Nwankwo and Patricia Schulz as co-focal points.

Decision 62/I

On 20 November 2015, the Committee adopted a statement on the refugee crises and the protection of women and girls (see www.ohchr.org/EN/HRBodies/CEDAW/Pages/Statements.aspx).

Decision 62/II

The Committee decided to replace the standard paragraph on the Millennium Development Goals and the post-2015 development framework in its concluding observations with the following new standard paragraph on the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development: “The Committee calls for the realization of substantive gender equality, in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, throughout the process of implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.”

Decision 62/III

The Committee decided to amend decision 50/II as follows:

(a) Paragraph 1 is amended by inserting the following sentences at the end: “During the dialogue with the State party concerned, the country rapporteur shall ensure that all relevant issues are covered by systematically asking follow-up questions to raise issues not hitherto addressed. Directly following the dialogue, in closed meeting, the country rapporteur shall briefly highlight the main concerns to be reflected in the concluding observations and receive concise feedback from experts.”;

(b) The first sentence of paragraph 2 is amended to read as follows: “Country rapporteurs shall conduct informal bilateral consultations with the members and, if necessary, convene a coordination meeting of the country task force, in order to ensure full coverage of the main areas of concern in the country and prevent any overlap, and make a proposal on the distribution of articles among the members of the country task force prior to the private lunchtime briefing on the State party concerned.”;

(c) The first sentence of paragraph 4 is amended to read as follows: “The country rapporteurs shall also provide the country briefing notes as early as possible to the Secretariat, no later than one week prior to the dialogue with the State party concerned. The notes should include a list of references and references to the relevant paragraphs of the State party’s report, its common core document, its written replies to the Committee’s list of issues and questions and other sources of information.”

Decision 62/IV

The Committee decided that the length of concluding observations must not exceed 6,000 words.
Decision 62/V

The Committee decided that the length of written information from States parties on follow-up to concluding observations must not exceed 4,000 words.

Decision 62/VI

The Committee decided to review and streamline the process of assessing States parties’ follow-up reports by establishing a system through which country rapporteurs would be able to provide their comments on draft assessments electronically to the Rapporteur on follow-up, the alternate Rapporteur on follow-up and the secretariat focal point for follow-up rather than systematically organizing meetings between them.

Decision 63/IX

The Committee decided to request its secretariat (Petitions and Inquiries Section) to post and regularly update on the Committee’s public web page on the OHCHR website a list of all individual communications registered under the Optional Protocol, by registration number and State party, including a short description of the subject matter of each case, with a view to facilitating the submission of interventions by third parties.
